Figure 5. Runtime per merge request under different slicing algorithms and LLaMA3.1-405B as base models. The most time-consuming algorithm is Function, due to its inclusion of the largest extra context. However, all runtimes are within an acceptable range based on our analysis.